

GONZALO RESCALA GÓMEZ

CEO&FOUNDER

- He is a graduate of the "Don Santiago Ramón y Cajal" School of Medicine of Westhill University, incorporated into the National Autonomous University of Mexico where he obtained the Title of Surgeon with Professional Certificate 5296707
- He completed a Diploma in Aesthetic Medicine endorsed by the Mexican Scientific Society of Aesthetic Medicine, incorporated into the National Autonomous University of Mexico.
- He completed a Diploma in Ozone Therapy and worked at the Ozono Medical Center Clinic in the city of Barcelona, Spain. He has homologation to the official Spanish university title as Surgeon.
- He is a graduate of the Instituto de Estudios Superiores en Medicina where he obtained the Master's Degree in Aesthetic Surgery with Professional Certificate 7506092
- He is a certified Physician in Techniques and Procedures in Therapy with Stem Cells obtained from Bone Marrow and Adipose Tissue carried out in the City of Bogotá, Colombia, obtaining registration number 4239 endorsed by Regentech Alliance.

- He obtained a certification in Collection and Isolation of Multipotential Cells derived from Peripheral Blood, Bone Marrow and Adipose Tissue carried out in the City of León Guanajuato, obtaining registration number 3307 endorsed by Regenestem Training and the University of Guanajuato.
- He completed a Training Course in Medical Ozone Therapies in the city of San Diego, California and is certified by the Society of Progressive Medical Education (SOPMED) in the United States.
- He completed a Diploma and Training in Autologous Biological Immunotherapy in the City of Concepción Chile, supported by Biogenic Inc, International Scientific Group, Recell Clinical Center and Bioclas Center of Pathological Anatomy and Molecular Pathology who also conferred the status of Biogenic Network Member with continuous support international scientific, clinical and laboratory in the areas of Molecular Immuno-Oncology and Molecular Pathology.
- He completed a Master's Degree in Cell Culture, Cytotoxicity and Transfection supported by Onscience, Training and Biotechnology Consulting in the city of Tres Cantos, Madrid.
- He has A training as a Specialist in General Oncology and Research Advances.
- He has a Diploma in Regenerative Medicine from the Anáhuac Mayab University

- Founder and CEO of RED EXOCEL, a Biotechnology company dedicated to research, innovation and development of therapeutic options based on exosomes.
- He is the director and medical manager of the Bank of progenitor or stem cells RED EXOCEL that is endorsed by COFEPRIS.
- He published an article entitled "Ten years of research on extracellular vesicles of mesenchymal cells to treat lung diseases" in the Official Journal of the Mexican Society of Pneumology and Thoracic Surgery of the National Institute of Respiratory Diseases (INER).
- He has an alliance with the Polytechnic University of Chiapas, UPCChiapas to provide training to health personnel in the area of Regenerative Medicine, contributing to improving the quality of life of people through therapies that seek the regeneration of tissues and organs.
- Through this alliance, it has offered courses on mesenchymal cells and their derivatives used in Regenerative Medicine through which the scientific bases on the virtues of this new therapy are provided, with the participation of representatives of the medical community of various parts of Mexico, Latin America and the Caribbean.
- He is certified as an Emergency Medical Technician by the National School of Emergency Medical Technicians of the Mexican Red Cross, National Headquarters delegation.